Deadline to Apply For SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loans is July 3

ATLANTA - The U.S. Small Business Administration is reminding businesses in Illinois that Economic Injury Disaster Loans are still available to small businesses economically impacted by the severe storms and flooding that occurred from September 13 through October 5, 2008.

“Businesses that suffered economic losses as a result of the disaster and want to apply for low-interest loans from the SBA are urged to do so before the July 3 deadline,” said Frank Skaggs, Director of SBA Field Operations Center East.

Small businesses in the following counties are eligible to apply: Boone, Bureau, Cook, DeKalb, DuPage, Fulton, Grundy, Kane, Kankakee, Kendall, Knox, Lake, LaSalle, Lee, Livingston, Marshall, McHenry, McLean, Ogle, Peoria, Putnam, Stark, Tazewell, Will, Winnebago and Woodford in the State of Illinois; and Lake in the State of Indiana.

Loans are available up to $2 million for small businesses that suffered substantial economic injury from the disaster. These working capital loans may be used to pay fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable, and other bills that could have been paid had the disaster not occurred. These loans are not intended to replace lost sales or profits.

The interest rate on these loans is 4 percent, with a maximum term of 30 years. The SBA determines the amount of economic injury and the terms of each loan based on the financial circumstances of each borrower. The SBA determines eligibility for the program based on the size and type of business and its financial resources.

To obtain a loan application, interested business owners should contact the SBA’s Customer Service Center by calling 1-800-659-2955 (1-800-877-8339 for the hearing-impaired) Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. EDT, or by sending an email to disastercustomerservice@sba.gov.
